Property

This original farmhouse, which dates back from the end of the 19th century is situated in southern Andalusia, west of Malaga, in the Guadalhorce valley, in a small village in an elevated position on the boundary of the municipalities of Coin, Pizarra and Casarabonela and has been restored by its present owners. The property is within five minute walk to the village. 6 km from the main road that connects you with any of the surrounding villages, Alozaina, Guaro, Monda, Pizarra, Alhaurin El Grande, Casarabonela and Alora.

The farmhouse retains many of the original features, beamed wooden ceilings, exposed stone walls and clay tiled floors. These features have been complimented by the renewal of other parts, keeping up with the original. There are four bedrooms in the country hotel, each with its own character, individually decorated to a high standard. Each room has air conditioning, heating and a television with DVD. The en-suite bathrooms have toilets and hair driers. The exclusive room in the hotel has its own private terrace overlooking the gardens and the hills. The en-suite bathroom has a Jacuzzi.
