Property

Situated in an area of great beauty with panoramic views over the Ronda mountains. This property, managed as a hotel for the last four years, was built in a traditional Andalusian style and has five double rooms which all have a terrace or balcony overlooking the mountains. It is situated close to an Andalusian white village only five kilometres from the historical and cultural town of Ronda, which dates back to pre-Roman days. Relax can be achieved by a roaring open fire or enjoying a local wine in the garden. Surrounded by three Natural Parks, the property makes an ideal base for a wide variety of activities including: horse-riding, nature walking, rock climbing, mountain - biking, bird watching, etc. The five double rooms are centrally heated and have their own en-suite facilities. The spacious rooms all have a terrace or balcony overlooking the Ronda mountains and its magnificent sunsets.
